

A person is silhouetted against a bright, hazy sky as they stand on the peak of a dark, rugged mountain. The scene is bathed in the warm, golden light of a low sun, creating a dramatic and atmospheric landscape. The mountain's ridges and valleys are softened by the light, and the overall mood is one of quiet contemplation and achievement.

REDEMPTION

Redemption

To compensate for faults, or make amends for sin or error

To make a payment in order to gain or regain possession of something lost.

Fulfil or carry out a pledge.

ELIMELECH'S LESSON – BOAZ'S EXAMPLE

Compensating for error or sin

Deuteronomy 25: “If brothers dwell together, and one of them dies and has no son, the wife of the dead man shall not be married outside the family to a stranger. Her husband's brother shall go in to her and take her as his wife and perform the duty of a husband's brother to her. And the first son whom she bears shall succeed to the name of his dead brother, that his name may not be blotted out of Israel.

PAYING THE PRICE TO RESTORE
WHAT WAS LOST.

Leviticus 25:“The land shall not be sold in perpetuity, for the land is mine. For you are strangers and sojourners with me. And in all the country you possess, you shall allow a redemption of the land. “If your brother becomes poor and sells part of his property, then his nearest redeemer shall come and redeem what his brother has sold. If a man has no one to redeem it and then himself becomes prosperous and finds sufficient means to redeem it, let him calculate the years since he sold it and pay back the balance to the man to whom he sold it, and then return to his property. But if he does not have sufficient means to recover it, then what he sold shall remain in the hand of the buyer until the year of jubilee. In the jubilee it shall be released, and he shall return to his property.”

PLEDGE, OR BE FAITHFUL TO A
VOW OR PROMISE.

Boaz the redeemer:

- He compensates for sin
- He pays to restore what was lost
- He makes good on his vow
