

The Silences of God

The background of the image is a dark, almost black, textured surface. A horizontal band of lighter, mottled brown and grey tones runs across the middle, suggesting a horizon or a layer of earth or sky. The overall mood is somber and contemplative.

“When the Lamb broke the seventh seal on the scroll
there was silence in Heaven for about half an hour.”

Rev 8.1

A dark red, textured rectangular frame is centered on a dark background. The frame has a rough, hand-painted appearance with irregular edges. Inside the frame, the text "Silence is so accurate." is written in a white, cursive font.

“Silence is so accurate.”

“God has made my heart faint,
the Almighty has terrified me.
Yet I am not silenced by the darkness,
by the thick darkness that covers my face.”

Job 23.16

“After our war, how will love speak?”
